

ANEW ARTIST TALKS

Facebook Live

February: Paul Betz

March: John Killacky

Join us February 23rd and March 10th for our next ANEW Artist Talks with photographer, Paul Betz, and filmmaker, John Killacky.

As an extension of ANEW, our latest exhibition showcasing works by Vermont artists with disabilities, Inclusive Arts Vermont is offering monthly artist talks. Together we'll explore artwork from the exhibit, each artist's creative process, and their creative evolution.

Paul Betz - Tuesday, February 23rd, 3pm

John Killacky - Wednesday, March 10th, 6:30pm

There is no sign up for this event. We will go live via our Facebook page. Each talk will be facilitated by an Inclusive Arts Vermont staff member, with opportunities to ask questions and engage with the artists live.

Check out our January ANEW Artist Talk with Gwendolyn Evans who was interviewed by Inclusive Arts Vermont program intern, Riaz Clark.

Due to Covid-19, some of the tour locations for ANEW were canceled. We've made the exhibit available online at <https://www.inclusiveartsvermont.org/community/exhibitions/>. This link also includes an audio tour and verbal descriptions of all the artwork.

ACCESSIBILITY: This talk will take place on Facebook Live. The talk will also be available on our YouTube page with captioning and verbal description after the live event. If you need assistance accessing any of these mediums, please email us at info@inclusiveartsvermont.org and we'd be happy to work with you! Please make other accessibility requests by emailing info@inclusiveartsvermont.org or calling 802-871-5002.

Thank you for your continued support!

The mission of Inclusive Arts Vermont is to use the magic of the arts to engage the capabilities and enhance the confidence of children and adults with disabilities. We do this through education, exhibition, and capacity building programs for teachers, students, artists, and organizations.