Fall session dates: October 7th through November 18th

Accessibility: From Awareness to Action is a three-part training series designed as a deep-dive into creating more accessible non-profit programming. While Inclusive Arts Vermont's expertise lies within the arts community, this training would be beneficial to any organization looking to increase accessibility for people with disabilities.

The fall series is open to teams of 2-3 from organizations and to individuals.

VOLUNTEER TO WRITE VERBAL DESCRIPTION FOR THIS EXHIBIT.
GET TRAINED AND INCREASE ACCESS TO ART!

MASKED

Become a verbal description volunteer, and share your skills to help make the upcoming "Masked" exhibition more accessible. We're offering two training dates, 10/4 and 10/5, and hope you'll join us and describe some of the amazing art in this exhibition.

Verbal description is an important accessibility feature for people who are blind or have low vision that applies written or spoken word to the visual elements of an event, meeting, location, or image. For "Masked" Inclusive Arts Vermont provides verbal description for every piece of art included in the exhibition, and we'd love your help in writing these!

What does volunteering entail?

- Attend one of the Verbal Description trainings on October 4th from 2-4pm or October 5th from 6-8pm
- Apply these learned skills as you write verbal descriptions for a small selection of art pieces from the Masked exhibition during October and November

Interested?

Fill out this form and we'll sign you up for a training session! Or get in touch - email Heidi@inclusiveartsvermont.org or call 802-871-5002 with any questions.

We look forward to exploring these opportunities with you, and building a more inclusive creative community.

Thank you for your continued support!

The mission of Inclusive Arts Vermont is to use the magic of the arts to engage the capabilities and enhance the confidence of children and adults with disabilities. We do this through education, exhibition, and capacity building programs for teachers, students, artists, and organizations.
