

SAVE THE DATE, Virtual Arts Access Summit

We are thrilled to announce our inaugural Arts Access Summit, being held virtually on March 28th, 2023 from 11 am - 6pm.

Join Inclusive Arts Vermont and guest presenters for a day of learning and conversation on accessibility in arts organizations. Participants will leave energized; with resources and actionable tips they can put into practice right away.

We are honored to be joined by KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Jen White-Johnson

Jen is a disabled and Neurodivergent Afro-Latina art activist and design educator whose visual work aims to uplift disability justice narratives in design. Jen uses photography, zines, and collage art to explore the intersection of content and caregiving, emphasizing redesigning ableist visual culture. Jen has presented her disability justice activist work and collaborated with a number of brands and art spaces across print and digital, such as Twitter, Target, Converse, and Apple. Her photo and design work has been featured in The Washington Post, AfroPunk, Art in America, Curating Access: Disability Art Activism and Creative Accommodation, and is permanently archived in libraries at The Metropolitan Museum of Art, the National Museum of Women in the Arts in DC, and more recently acquired by the Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture.
