

CYCLES! Announcing our call for art!
We invite Vermont disabled artists to submit to our exhibition.

The theme CYCLES came from ideas shared by our community. Artwork can include cycles of nature. Cycles of the body. Experiences of repetition, circular shapes, and more. Artists can explore the theme in any way that moves them.

Disability exists in all communities. We encourage artists at any stage, new or pro, to apply. We also encourage applications from BIPOC and 2SLGBTQIA+ disabled artists.

Call to Art opens on August 15, 2023.
Call to Art closes on October 2, 2023.

The exhibition will travel the state. Opening at the Davis Center at UVM in February 2024.

Questions? Call 802-556-3668. Or email exhibitions@inclusiveartsvermont.org

Access:

All exhibits will be physically accessible

Have large print and braille info

An audio tour

Verbal descriptions of the art

ASL by request

This call is open to artists with disabilities age 18+ who live in Vermont or are from Vermont but reside elsewhere. If you have any eligibility questions please contact us.

Eligible Artwork:

Must not have been exhibited in past Inclusive Arts Vermont exhibitions.

Be able to be hung on a wall.

Original works or fine art prints.

Art is within 40 inches in either dimension.

Art must be available for the duration of the tour (through December 2024)

Works of art do not have to be framed to be considered.

We Cannot Accept Art That:

Is fragile

Cannot be hung on a wall
Is not original
Is video art

Timeline:

Call to Artist Announced August 15, 2023
Deadline for Submissions October 2, 2023
Submission Review by Jury Team October 2023
Artists Notification November 2023
Artwork Due December 2024
Statewide Tour Begins February 2024

To Apply:

Complete this form

Send up to 5 artworks
And an image list